

Privacy Policy

Chicago Wealth Management, Inc. requires that you provide current and accurate financial and personal information. Chicago Wealth Management will protect the information you have provided in a manner that is safe, secure and professional. Chicago Wealth Management is committed to protecting your privacy and to safeguarding that information, and requires that all employees sign a confidentiality agreement which states that all client information will remain undisclosed except in those cases noted below.

Safeguarding Client Documents

We collect non-public client data in checklists, forms, in written notations, and in documentation provided to us by our clients for evaluation, registration, licensing or related consulting services. We also create internal lists of such data.

During regular business hours access to client records is monitored so that only those with approval may access the files. During hours in which the company is not in operation, the client records will be locked.

No individual who is not so authorized shall obtain or seek to obtain personal and financial client information. No individual with authorization to access personal and financial client information shall share that information in any manner without the specific consent of a firm principal. Failure to observe Chicago Wealth Management procedures regarding customer and consumer privacy will result in discipline and may lead to termination.

Sharing Nonpublic Personal and Financial Information

Chicago Wealth Management is committed to the protection and privacy of its clients' personal and financial information. Chicago Wealth Management will not share such information with any affiliated or nonaffiliated third party except:

- When necessary to complete a transaction in a client account, such as with the clearing firm or account custodians;
- When required to maintain or service a client account;
- To resolve client disputes or inquiries;
- With persons acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of the client;
- With rating agencies, persons assessing compliance with industry standards, or to the attorneys, accountants and auditors of the firm;
- To protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, identity theft, unauthorized transactions, claims or other liability;
- To comply with federal, state or local laws, rules and other applicable legal requirements;
- In connection with a written agreement to provide investment management or advisory services when the information is released for the sole purpose of providing the products or services covered by the agreement; or
- In any circumstances with the client's instruction or consent.

Opt-Out Provisions

It is not a policy of Chicago Wealth Management to share nonpublic personal and financial information with affiliated or unaffiliated third parties except under the circumstances noted above. Since sharing under the circumstances noted above is necessary to service client accounts or is mandated by law, there are no allowances made for client to opt out

2/24/2010